State Librarian GRAND JURY IS SET IN MOTION

In Instructions, Judge Sparks Tells
Jurors What is Expected of
Them

REFERS TO JOHNSON CASE

Suit Set For Today is Compromised
And Will be Dismissed—Erba
Price Discharged

The grand jury was sworn in and charged this morning by Judge Sparks, and immediately started work. In his statement to the grand jury, Judge Sparks told the grand jury that the investigation of law breaking in this city and county and urged the grand jury to take up first any crime involving prisoners held in the county jail.

The court called attention to the case of Clayton Johnson, who is held in jail for the alleged misuse of guardianship funds. The court told the jury that Johnson's case should be investigated and that if he was guilty of using the funds of his two children, he was guilty of embezzlement.

Amos Glidden, drawn as one of the grand jurors, was excused by the court on account of illness and Joel G. Carson of this city was drawn to fill the vacancy. Judge Sparks appointed Owen Henley of Ripley township as foreman of the grand jury and James Cassidy was sworn in as grand jury bailiff.

The first session of the grand jury was a busy one. The corridor of the third floor was crowded all day with witnesses waiting to testify. A majority of the witnesses were women. It was reported that the grand jury was investigating an alleged "blind tiger" in the northwestern part of the city.

The case set for trial today was compromised and will be dismissed. As a result it was rather quiet in circuit court. The case which was set for trial was the suit of the Warner Instrument Company against Harvey A. Moore, on a guaranty. The case was sent to this county on a change of venue from Shelby county.

Notice of an appeal was filed in the damage suit of Marshall Green against the Big Four railway. The jury, when the case was tried, gave Green $550 damages. The appeal bond was fixed at $1,000 and ninety days given in which to file a bill of exceptions.

In the divorce suit of Lillian Gilson against John R. Gilson an agreement was reached whereby he is to pay her the sum of $3 a week support money and $10 attorney fee. The attorney fee is to be paid within thirty days.

Judge Sparks this morning issued a final discharge to Erba Price on recommendation of the superintendent of the state reformatory at Jeffersonville. Erba Price pleaded guilty to the charge of involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of his father, William Price. He was given a suspended sentence of from two to fourteen years by Judge Megee.

ADDITIONS TO THE CHURCH NUMBER 27

Most Converts at Main Street Christian Church Revival Sunday
Since Meeting Began.

THE OTHER SERVICES CLOSE

Sunday was a day that will long be remembered in the annals of the Main Street Christian church. Three mammoth services were held and during the course of the day there were twenty-seven additions to the church. This makes a total of sixty-seven converts during the meeting, which has been in progress only two weeks.

The Rev. J. H. O. Smith preached three excellent churches Sunday, the one in the afternoon being for men only. Special musical numbers were provided by the Rev. H. H. Saunders, singing evangelist. Every available seat in the main auditorium and the Sunday school room was filled for last night's services. The revival will continue this week, with preaching each night at seven-thirty o'clock.

Protracted meetings at the United Presbyterian and First Baptist churches drew to a close Sunday night. There were twenty additions to the Baptist church, where the revival has been in progress two weeks and three days.

CASSIUS SMITH TRIAL POSTPONED

Inability of Henry Spaan to Reach
Noblesville Causes Delay of
Two Days.

SPECIAL VENIRE DRAWN

The jury in the case against Cassius Smith, charged with the murder of his father-in-law will be empaneled Wednesday at Noblesville. Court will adjourn for Thanksgiving on Thursday and the introduction of evidence will begin on Friday.

The case was originally set for today, but Henry Spaan of Indianapolis, one of Smith's attorneys, could not be in Noblesville until Wednesday. He is engaged in a trial at Danville and the court there was delayed for a day or two on account of the death of Judge Hadley, thus making it necessary to start the Smith case a day or two later. A special venire of forty jurymen has been drawn.

The defendant is a son of the late Walter Smith of this county and was at one time employed on the I. & C. traction line. The alleged murder took place at the Smith home north of Indianapolis.

RESOLUTION TO DISBAND FAILS

Effort to Discontinue Rush County
Teachers Association at Session
Saturday is Wasted.

BACKED BY CITY TEACHERS

They Will Likely be Given Opportunity to Withdraw if They Care
to—No Ill Feeling.

As was predicted Saturday the attempt to disband the Rush County Teachers' Association failed. The resolution was introduced and failed for the lack of a majority. The resolution was favored by the teachers of the Rushville schools because it is pointed out, they have a large number of institutes to attend. As a result, it is likely that these teachers will be given the privilege of withdrawing from the county organization and some other arrangements will likely be made for these teachers, but the county institute will be held as usual.

No ill feeling developed over the introduction of the resolution. It was stated today that the resolution was introduced in an effort to get a line on the sentiment. The teachers outside of the city schools took the position that the institute should continue as it has been in existence twenty-one years and there was no occasion for disbanding. These teachers insisted that if the teachers of the city schools wanted out of the institute all they had to do was withdraw and that there was no occasion for such a radical move as disbanding the organization.

The discussion was entirely friendly, it was stated. The teachers in the city schools have been attending the county institute for years as a method of making up for the holiday which is given for the day after Thanksgiving. It is likely that the teachers here will attend some other meeting to make up for this day. It was also pointed out that as long as the county institute was held in Rushville a large number of the teachers here would attend, whether they were compelled to or not.

The institute Saturday was considered one of the best in several years. The three speakers were of high order and the addresses proved most interesting. The resolutions as passed expressed appreciation on the part teacher to the speakers and included a memorial on the death of Miss Lena Brookbank, a teacher in the Moscow school.

THE LIE IS PASSED.

London, Nov. 22.—"Absolutely false," was the admiralty's official answer today to the German charge that Great Britain is sending transports with troops and munitions to Salonika disguised as hospital ships.

KNIGHTSTOWN WOMAN KILLED

Mrs. George Watts Burned to Death
When Gasoline Explodes After
Her Auto Hits Car

ACCIDENT IN INDIANAPOLIS

Husband Makes Frantic Efforts to Put Out Fire But Has to Stand
by And Watch Wife Die

Although he made frantic efforts to extinguish the fire, George Watts, manager of the Knightstown telephone company, well known here, had to stand by and watch his wife die early Saturday evening in Indianapolis when the gasoline tank of his automobile exploded and the machine caught fire after it had been struck by an Indianapolis street car. Mrs. Watts was pinned down by the machine and unable to move.

Margaret Watts, daughter of the dead woman, suffered bruises, but Mr. Watts, and Mrs. M. E. Reagan, her daughter Mary Reagan and Mrs. Susan Morris, all of Knightstown, escaped injury.

According to the story of those who witnessed the accident the automobile tried to avoid one street car and drove in front of another. For a moment, the accident did not seem to be of a serious nature, but an explosion of gasoline followed and fire then enveloped the machine.

Watts made frantic attempts to save his wife and to extinguish the fire after her clothes were ablaze. He succeeded, but not until she had been injured so seriously she could not recover. Firemen were called from nearby engine house and finally extinguished the flames.

The body of the dead woman was removed to an undertaking establishment. Margaret Watts was taken to a friend in Indianapolis where she was treated.

The automobile party was returning to Knightstown after witnessing the Wabash-DePauw football game. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Watts a student a Wabash was in Indianapolis at the time.

Miss Susan Morris of Newcastle, who was in the Watts car but escaped unscathed, is a niece of Judge Douglas Morris of this city.

BOUGHT ROAD WITH THE CONSENT OF T. R.

Charles S. Mellen, Former New Haven Head, Tells of Absorption
of Boston and Maine Line.

MILITARY VIEW WAS TAKEN

(By United Press.)
New York, Nov. 22.—Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven, testified today in the trial of the indicted directors that the purchase of the Boston & Maine by the New Haven railroad was made with the full consent of Col. Roosevelt, then president and Secretary of the Interior Lane, then an interstate commerce commissioner.

They agreed with him, Mellen said, that it was better from a military standpoint to have the Boston & Maine owned by an American co-operation than to have it fall into the hands of Canadian owners.

But the President declared, Mellen said, that if the New Haven officials violated the law, they did so at their own risk.

SAYS FAILURE IS DUE TO STUDENT

T. Z. Davis, Psychologist, Declares
Those That Succeed Owe it to
Their Education.

ADDRESSES THE HIGH SCHOOL

Every Boy and Girl Should Know
Where They Are Going—Indecision no Excuse, he Says.

T. Z. Davis, a psychologist of Farmer City, Ill., addressed the students of the high school this afternoon on the subject, "Why Student's Fail," showing that the fault is their own despite the fact that the teacher for the most part gets the blame. In a series of fairy stories the speaker brought the experience down to actual life and showed that the majority of men and women who succeed in the world owe their success to ability gained through education.

The speaker told of 10,000 men in Chicago advertising for jobs when one firm advertised for three men and out of this great number of men not one was qualified for the positions. "I say," said Mr. Davis, "that there are right now in this country 500,000 men out of work simply because they have not the ability to fill good positions."

He declared that some people gather diamonds and others sandstone all because they did not make a decision early in life as to what their future course would be. He related several incidents of real life in which the boy started in life without friends, money or influence and finally gained that which they started out to be. He referred to Abraham Lincoln as declaring when young, that he would be president of the United States and then setting about to accomplish his ambition.

"Every boy and girl in this school," said Mr. Davis, "should know where they are going. Indecision is no excuse. Know where you are going and then go. Lincoln knew where he was going and set his aspirations accordingly. He had his eye on the presidency and he knew that if he didn't get it someone else would. You have got to get away from the crowd if you win in any race."

He pointed out that people must be better fitted for life now than at one time and declared that work was the key to success. Better grades in the schools come as a result of work, he declared. "Books are not all of an education," said Mr. Davis. "Righteous principles with the ability to back it up is what makes men successful."

The students were warned not to steal their way through school, as they hurt themselves worse than any one else and the effects were bound to be felt in after life. The address of Mr. Davis was arranged hurriedly.

Never Too Busy

Alert merchants are never too busy to see "traveling salesmen."

They may not buy, but they want to take a minute to look.

There may be something they need—something they don't want to overlook.

Newspaper advertising is like the traveling salesman showing his goods.

Perhaps you do not want the goods, but it pays you to look.

Reading keeps you informed of the market and what prices prevail.

That knowledge is valuable when the time does come to buy.

Amusements

The Gem offers a two reel comedy "An All Around Mistake" for the first picture tonight. King Baggot and Arline Pretty are featured and it is said to be a fine picture. The other is a comedy entitled "Snatched From the Altar." Eddie Lyons is featured.

In "A Little Brother of the Rich," the Universal five-act photodrama which comes to the Gem theater on Wednesday, two youthful sweethearts are engaged to marry when circumstances of their own choosing part of them. The girl becomes a famous actress. The boy hobnobs with the idle rich. Later they meet but not to marry.

"A Little Brother of the Rich" was written by Joseph Medill Patterson, the Chicago millionaire, who knows the society and stage life which he depicts in his famous novel and which is faithfully transcribed in the photoplay version of the novel made by Otis Turner, producer of "Damon and Pythias" and "The Black Box" serial.

The Princess will show for tonight's program a big feature entitled "A Woman's Resurrection." Betty Nansen is featured. It is said to be a telling drama and the scenes are magnificent and varied to a degree seldom ever seen. In the ensembles one thousand people take part and over and above all shines the brilliant acting of Miss Nansen. Tomorrow night the four act drama "Ransom's Folly" will be shown. The picture is taken from the story of the same name by Richard Harding Davis.

Regarding the feature picture at the Princess Thursday night, the New York Sun says: Picturizing one of Cyrus Townsend Brady's novels, the Vitagraph Theatre presented "The Island of Regeneration," a story of two castaways on a South Pacific island. It is one of the Vitagraph's greatest achievements, for the highly colored tale is a series of beautiful pictures that move from Virginia in the seventies to the southern isle, and from social affairs in 'Frisco to a tableau of Edith Storey as a crouching nymph beside a pool.

Oh, yes, the nude in the motion picture art has arrived, for here this fine actress, in order to properly present the story, must needs join her sister player of another film in the unclothed tableau. There is nothing offensive in the picture. Miss Storey is shown bathing in a secluded pool on the lonesome islet, as she had few clothes she had to swim in nature's clothing. When she crouches hidden in a secret cave above water the posture is artistic, with no touch of undue revelation. As she lithely swims about her poses are those of unconscious grace.

The story is of a society girl who goes a-cruising with a yachtsman in defiance of conventions. When he eventually attempts to win her by force she jumps into a gasoline launch, in which she drifts to a lone island. On it lives a man who was cast away there as a boy. She would teach him English, but he learns—love. Three years after rescue comes, but because lying accusation destroys his faith in her she make him believe she has ended her life. He goes to America, but after more years returns to her. It is all pictured in entrancing fashion.

Indianapolis is to have a grand opera event that should prove notable in the city's musical history, and it is not far off. Announcement is made that negotiations have been completed between the Murat Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., and the San Carlo Grand Opera Company for the appearance at the Murat during the week of December 6th, of that celebrated organization of songbirds. The San Carlo Company, numbering upwards of six score members and including some twenty of the foremost opera stars of the present day, was recently selected to re-open the famous Boston Opera House, the Hub being without it's own opera organization again this season. The Boston critics and the seasoned opera enthusiasts of the "cultured" city received the San Carlo stars with exceptional enthusiasm, the engagement achieving such success that a return engagement of four weeks has been arranged at the great playhouse in the Spring.

Indianapolis has been without this form of entertainment for a long time except for a few unimportant traveling companies that have attempted to sing grand opera in English. The San Carlo performances will be in Italian and French, with a brilliant singing chorus, the nucleus of which was brought direct from the famous chorus schools of Italy, a complete grand opera orchestra and ballet feature. There will be a repertoire of eight different and distinct operas, these to be sung by three separate casts of principals. The operas will be staged upon the same metropolitan scale of excellence as at Boston, Washington, Montreal and other cities where the love of grand opera is of long standing, the scenic investiture and costuming of the San Carlo forces being entirely new, novel and traditional in character.

The grand opera week will be directly under the auspices of Murat Temple, and will unquestionably prove a gala event for music-lovers and students of the art. Aside from the noteworthy features already mentioned there are two more that will make the event one of rare attractiveness. These are the repertoire and the prices—both of which will be more or less of the popular character. It will be a financial treat as well as a musical one owing to the generously low prices announced, it being understood that no seat will cost more than $2, and will cost more than two dollars, and from that figure it will range as low as 50c.

The repertoire follows: Monday, Dec. 6, "Aida"; Tuesday, "La Cioia Di Lammermoor"; Wednesday, Matinee, "Gounod's Faust," in 5 acts complete, with the beautiful church

scene and incidental music; Eve, "Rigoletto"; Thursday, "Cavalleria Rusticana and Pagliacci"; Friday, "La Traviata (Camille); Saturday, Matinee, "Tales of Hoffman;" eve, "IL Trovatore"

The regular public seat sale will open Thursday, Dec. 2 at 9. The mail order subscriptions will be received from this time forward, and carefully filled.

The grand opera event should prove particularly attractive to the artistic colony of this city owing to the large number of music students who seldom, if ever, are given opportunity to enjoy the masterworks of song as interpreted by great artists. The Murat Theater management wishes to convey to prospective patrons from this city the assurance that mail orders received from them will have the most careful attention. The Grand opera is expected to constitute the supreme musical and society event of the amusement season an Indianapolis. It is probable that special train service will be arranged between this city and Indianapolis during the opera week.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Mart, local representative, Hargrove & Mullin, Druggists.

TO BUY IMPLEMENTS TO FARM IN EGYPT

Milroy Boy Will Purchase Machinery For American Farmer in Valley of the Nile.

INSPECTION AT EXPOSITION

Virgil Henry of Milroy left this morning for the exposition at San Francisco. The palace of machinery will prove the greatest attraction to Mr. Henry for he is making the trip in the interests of George Bey Wassa, who contemplates equipping his estates in Egypt with American tractor engines.

Dr. L. M. Henry, father of Virgil Henry, became acquainted with Bey Wassa while working in a hospital in Egypt. Bey Wassa is an American consular agent at Assiout, a holder of large land estates, and a man of much influence among the natives in the Nile valley around Assiout. Besides equipping his estates with crude oil engines and tractors, he desires to act as distributing agent for the American engines in his district. On account of the European struggle it was impossible for the agent to make the trip to America as planned so Virgil Henry will negotiate for him with the manufacturers at the exposition.

Most of the farming in Egypt is done with camels and oxen and the most primitive tools. What little farm machinery imported was of German make, but the English blockade has closed the ports of Germany, leaving the United States manufacturer without a competitor. Land worth as high as $300 an acre along the Nile will, if this deal goes through, receive the first touch of modern farm implements.

Child Welfare Exhibits.

Child Welfare Exhibits is the title of a bulletin issued yesterday by the Children's Bureau of the Federal Department of Labor. This has been prepared in reply to the many inquiries received by the Bureau about exhibits, and single copies may be had for the asking. The bulletin will give those who expect to observe the nation-wide Baby Week next March, or those who are planning a baby show, a children's health conference, or any of children's exhibit the benefit of expert advice and practical experience in successful exhibit work.

The bulletin is full of suggestions for communities of all sizes. It describes effective small exhibits of one or another phase of child problems. It defines a "child welfare exhibit" in the title of which the name of the city or State appears as a "well-rounded presentation of the whole question of the welfare of the community's children," and sounds a warning against undertaking such a general exhibit without co-operation of all the social agencies of the community.

Courage Not Declining.

Has the alleviation of pain and more comfortable living of the present age made people soft, as so many assert?

Small pains are not borne as easily as formerly. A previous generation thought little of having teeth out without an anesthetic. The story is told of an old timer, who having a sore foot that bothered him, went out to the barn one day and chopped one toe off with a hatchet.

Nowadays most people take gas and ether to have teeth out, and dread the commonplace experience of having teeth pulled.

The superb courage shown in the European war suggests that when it comes to a pinch, human nature is much as it was in the heroic days of chivalry. The soldiers march on, line after line, to organized death. The bravery of American soldier boys under the murderous fire of snipers at Vera Cruz told the same story. There is to-day a growing sensitiveness to pain and alarm at danger. But also in a refined age there is a keener sense of shame and fear of ridicule. Perhaps life does not look good to the soldier, if he must gain it only by wearing the pale badge of cowardice.

The soundness of the protective tariff principle has been abundantly demonstrated by the effect of the European war, which has acted as a bar against importation of foreign goods and has compelled Americans to buy at home. In July, 1914, when the war began, American industry was going down the toboggan at a rate that would soon have brought it to the level of 1893-4. The revival in the last few months shows the advantage of shutting out foreign importations of goods in order to keep American mills running, American laborers employed and American money at home.

The Democratic administration may be sincere in its assertion that the army of unemployed is no larger than usual but it will at least be forced to admit that some hundreds have had their wages cut. If adoption of such policies be necessary in Government affairs as a result of business depression, the administration can scarcely be heard to deny that a similar course must be followed by private enterprise. The indisputable fact is that in practically all industry, wages have been cut or the number of employees reduced.

Democrats who agree with Barnum that the American people like to be humbugged, will have a chance to revise their theories after the next election. The desire to be fooled is limited to entertainment and does not apply to business and government.

The Democratic National Convention pledged its Presidential candidate to the principle of one term. This is one pledge the Republicans will aid them in fulfilling.

LAW MAY NEVER BE UNRAVELED

One Correspondent Raises Number of Questions Concerning That New Primary Statute.

CONFLICTS GALORE FOUND

Pointed Out That There is no Provision Applying to Towns—
Are They Exempted.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—Voters of Indiana, as the primary date approaches, are beginning to have some idea as to what kind of a primary law it is that the last Democratic legislature gave the state. It is full of conflicting provisions and the language is vague in the extreme. Not until one begins a study of the law does he realize just exactly what kind of legislation a Democratic legislature can produce when it does not discuss a single provision on the floor of either House as was the case with the present primary law.

A half dozen Philadelphia lawyers would have trouble in figuring out just exactly what it all means. Letters are pouring into state headquarters, praying for help in interpreting this law. The following from a letter received from a worried precinct committeeman is but a sample of those coming from every section of the state. This correspondent asks:

Section 4. Can a precinct committeeman be employed by the county board of election commission to assist them in the November election to canvass the vote?

Section 5. Does the first sentence mean what it says? Does it mean that each political party shall have an election board. It says the following officers "for each political party participating in such primary." Is the poll book holder an officer of the board and is he paid by the county and does the county have to furnish him his meals? In case there are only two parties in a county who would appoint the second judge? Who appoints the clerks of the board. Is each party to have a poll book holder? If so who appoints the poll book holder? If only one poll book holder for all parties who appoints him?

Section 7. There seems to be a conflict with Section 5 in the way the election board is appointed. Section 5 provides how the board is to be named and Section 7 says the chairman is to nominate.

The last clause of Section 7 provides for the pay of the board and officers shall be the same as is received by the same officers at the general election, which is $2.00 and $1.50 per day, while Section 20 provides that they shall be paid $3.00 per day. Which is law?

Section 8. This Section does not include towns, and no where in the act is town included. I think that the Act does not include the town and in town nominations the primary law does not apply.

Section 13. What part of this Section has the Court declared illegal?

Section 20. Conflicts with Section 7.

Section 36. Does it mean that the signer to the petition who is sworn to said petition as set out in Section 35, can substitute a name in case the one named withdraws. That is does it put in the hands of the one person the right to name another person for delegate in place of the one withdrawn?

Section 53. What does it mean in Sec. 53 line 32 where it speaks of the March and June primary.

On account of Thanksgiving there will be only one delivery at 9 a. m. Thursday. Order your meats and groceries accordingly. Benson Delivery Co. 21713.

THE "VIGILANCE COMMITTEE."

On the outbreak of the war, a "Vigilance Committee" was organized as a sort of a general committee on public safety. It paid considerable attention to the press and to the legislature. It made dire threats to the latter or to individual members, when it thought there was undue hesitancy in passing certain legislation providing for the organization of troops. When an attempt was made to investigate it, the majority of the legislature, in sympathy with the spirit, recommended that every member in danger turn himself into a vigilance committee and take care of himself.

KNOW IT WELL

Familiar Features Well Known to Hundreds of Rushville Citizens.

A familiar burden in many homes. The burden of a "bad back." A lame, a weak or an aching back. Often tells you of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Here is Rushville testimony. Mrs. Jacob Roth, 820 North Perkins street, Rushville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used time and time again by different ones of the family and they have never failed to give perfect satisfaction. For rheumatic pains, kidney and bladder trouble, I know that Doan's Kidney Pills can be relied upon to bring almost immediate relief. I have such faith in this medicine that I never fail to speak a good word for it, whenever I hear anyone complaining of kidney trouble."

(Statement given March 9, 1910.) On August 26, 1915, Mrs. Roth said: "In my opinion there is nothing better for the kidneys than Doan's Kidney Pills. I keep them in the home all the time, even though they are seldom needed. I think that they were the means of keeping one of the family alive and not only that, but I have used them with great success myself."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Roth has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Terre Haute High School Lays Claim to State Football Championship—Good Record

HAS WON EVERY GAME PLAYED

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 22.—To many there may be some doubt as to the Indiana state high school football champions, but to football fans of Terre Haute the Wiley high school team stands head and shoulders above any.

Any shadowed doubt that have remained in the minds of Wiley's supporters was erased when the Wiley eleven minus Billy Hoff, all state back, declared ineligible, defeated the Robinson (Ill.) team, Nov. 5, by a score of 14 to 13.

Wiley bases her claim to real class on this victory, and Robinson is the acknowledged rival of Hyde Park eleven of Chicago, for the state title of Illinois. Linton, the only claimant of the title, Wiley has met and beaten 28 to 3.

Backing her claim, Wiley is willing to meet Gary, Elkhart or any other high school of the state.

Wiley has played four games, and is yet to meet the Coalmont and Terre Haute Garfield high school elevens. Wiley has scored 207 points to its opponents' 19. Wiley's record:

Wiley 24	Linton 3
Wiley 124	Greencastle 0
Wiley 41	Brazil 3
Wiley 14	Robinson 13.

Sidney Adler, 23, Arrested in Indianapolis Today, Tells Police a Strange Story.

PASSED FRAUDULENT CHECKS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—When arrested today charged with passing fraudulent checks and jumping a hotel bill, Sidney Lewis Adler, age 23, said he could live well on $50 a week, but that he needed an automobile—hence the trouble.

Adler gave his address as Bronx, New York, and said he was a graduate of Columbia University. He was working as a draftsman in an architect's office here. Recently he came here from Montreal, Canada.

"The war made money tight there," said Adler.

The police said Adler passed bad checks on several local auto salesmen and obtained possession of one automobile.

ROBBERY IS THWARTED

Would-be Burglar Caught Breaking Into Morristown Station.

An attempt was made early Saturday morning to rob the I. & C. station in Morristown. At about two o'clock a man described as being 25 or 26 years old, smooth faced and rather heavy set, drove up to the station and alighted from a spring wagon. The man approached the station and smashed the glass in the front door. He was in the act of stepping into the building when Agent Rock arose from his bed and started after the would-be robber. The robber, seeing that the agent was aroused, ran for his wagon and beat a retreat to the north.

TURKEY DINNER WILL COST LESS

While The Birds Are a Little Higher This Year The Entire Dinner Should Not Be

$4 FOR FAMILY OF FIVE PEOPLE

Crop in Southern Indiana Said to be Good—Two to Three Cents a Pound Over Last Year

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Nov. 22.—Bring on your Thanksgiving day. The Hoosiers are ready! Poultry dealers and grocers here today said that although turkeys are a little higher, some other things are lower, and anyway business conditions, they said, are much better in Indiana than they were a year ago. All told, your dinner will cost about $4 for five people.

President Wyckoff of the Indianapolis Poultry Co. said that prices of turkey today (22 cents alive, 25 New York and 28 full dressed) would hold about the same until Thanksgiving day. Dressed turkeys are from 2 to 3 cents higher a pound than last year.

"But with the steel mills, the coke ovens and the coal mines working full blast, we find that more turkeys are being bought than last year. This in past, will account for the scarcity," said Wyckoff.

Wyckoff then explained that the wet summer had hit the turkey industry hard. The turkeys that didn't drown were stunted trying to get away from the water, he said.

Grocers and poultry dealers estimated for the United Press what the average Thanksgiving dinner for five persons would cost this year. The following table was prepared:

Turkey (8 pounds) 28 cents	$2.24
Sweet potatoes (3 pounds) 3 1/2 cents	.10
Oysters (one quart)	.40
Cranberries (one pound)	.13
Celery (five cents) three bunches	.15
Peas (1 can)	.13
Nuts (one pound assorted)	.19
Mince pie	.20
Fruit cake	.40
Total	$3.94

All the prices are about the same as last year with the exception of turkey, the cranberries and sweet potatoes. These are cheaper.

If the head of the family likes duck better he can get it at 15 cents a pound alive, or 22 cents dressed. But dealers say ducks aren't as good now as they will be later on. Chickens are 16 cents per pound alive and 20 cents dressed.

Dealers said that for the most part their turkeys came from Southern Indiana.

NO SHORTAGE IN SOUTHERN PART

Turkeys Are Coming Into Bedford by The Wagon Loads—Price There is Reasonable

BUSINESS IS PROFITABLE

(By United Press.)

Bedford, Ind., Nov. 22.—This city, in the heart of the "turkey belt" is carpeted with feathers this week, for it is doing its part to provide a suitable "turkey Thanksgiving" for the cities of Northern Indiana.

Turkeys are coming in by the wagon load and have been for a week past. The crop is reported good, the fowls being fine fat and of good weight. Despite reports from other places. Lawrence county fowls are prime. Farmers are receiving 17 cents a pound.

Rough country through this section makes turkey raising profitable. Very few turkeys, comparatively are raised north of a line through Martinsville and Greensburg. Indianapolis dealers get about 70 percent of their fowls from southern Indiana and 15 per cent. from Illinois and Kentucky.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy — If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Public Schools Enlist in Campaign to Americanize Candidates For Citizenship

400 CITIES AND TOWNS JOIN

Magnitude of Work And Development Shown by Immense Amount of Territory Covered

Washington, Nov. 20.—Throughout the country the plan of the Bureau of Naturalization of the U. S. Department of Labor to enlist the co-operation of public schools in the education and Americanization of candidates for citizenship is receiving the most gratifying support. Approximately 400 cities and towns have already joined in the nationwide educational movement, for the elimination of the hyphen and this number is increasing daily.

The magnitude of this work and its development since its inception are shown, in part, by the territory covered, the number of candidates for citizenship reached, and the night and day schools which have been established for their instruction. It is the intention of the Bureau of Naturalization to communicate with all applicants for citizenship in the United States, wherever they are to be found, and to secure the opening classes for them. During the current scholastic year all superintendents of schools where classes may be formed will receive monthly from the Bureau the name, address, age, nationality, and other necessary information concerning each alien, residing within their jurisdiction who files a declaration of intention for naturalization. In this manner school authorities are enabled to get in touch with such applicants and afford them valuable assistance in preparing for citizenship. In addition to this the Bureau informs each applicant for citizenship that his name has been forwarded to the educational authorities, advises him to go to school, and points out the benefits to be derived from such attendance. The Bureau is also working in close co-operation with various patriotic and civic bodies of the country to secure the opening of public night schools where there are none.

The wives of all petitioners for naturalization are also advised to attend school, for the reason that they derive citizenship when their husbands obtain their final papers, and because, too, such instruction will materially aid the family to live as Americans live. It has been found that approximately two out of every three petitioners for naturalization are married, and it is toward the improvement of the home life and conditions that this phase of the movement is especially directed.

The records of the Bureau of Naturalization show that since the commencement of the school year on October 1 notifications have been sent to approximately 40,000 declarants, 20,000 petitioners, and 15,000 wives of petitioners, and each day hundreds are added to the list.

The present volume of naturalization shows that over half a million foreign-born residents annually bring themselves within the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Naturalization, and it is the plan of the Bureau, through the co-operation of the public schools with its educational movement, to change that portion of the alien body now in a condition of helpless dependence which is the birthright of all American citizens regardless of their origin of birth.

PLANT EXPERTS ISSUE ADVICE

Tell Housewives How to Bathe, Feed And Care For Potted Flowers at All Times

RUBBER PLANTS NEED FOOD

Diluted Ammonia is Helpful—Should be Re-Potted When the Roots Get Too Thick

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Advice to housewives on the bathing, feeding and care of potted plants has just been issued by Uncle Sam and his plant industry experts.

Rubber plants need a sun bath every day. Their feet should be kept damp, but not wet. The leaves should be washed twice a week in good soapsuds and rinsed in clear water. When the pot gets too full of roots, re-pot the plant. Every rubber plant should have a prepared food square meal twice a month. Give it a dose of diluted ammonia occasionally, too.

With regard to the housewife's potted plants generally, Uncle Sam says she should chase the woolly white mealy bugs and the little red ants away from them with a toothpick. She may drown the red spider with a squirt gun. If the bugs and spiders shatter your preparedness program, you are advised to cut the plants off within an inch of their lives and throw them away. They'll grow again.

The green fly, which is not so green as it looks, won't bother your plants if you keep them well bathed and fed.

GLASS EYED DAMES WITH NO FEET WEAR BEAUTIFUL CREATIONS FROM PARIS

But They are Cold Painted Beauties of Solid Wax And Are at Fashion Show

HUNDREDS OF FINE GOWNS

New York, Nov. 22.—There are one hundred beautiful girls up at the Ritz-Carlton hotel today, glass eyed dames with no feet; and every single mother's daughter of then is wearing a $1,000 dream of a late winter of early spring Paris gown.

These girls are cold, painted beauties of solid wax. About and among them flutters Mme. Ramon Fernandez, "the best dressed woman in Paris" the "fashion queen" and wife of the former Mexican Ambassador to France. She is staging this display of fast gasps in Paris gowns to get money for French relief work among children made destitute by the war. She is not only the ultimate syllable in Paris style, but a society leader as well.

The hundred gowns, which will remain absolute secrets until the opening of the fete with a grand ball tonight, include creations by Poiret, Worth, Premet, Doucet, Paquin, Lanvin, Jenny Cheruit and Callot Soeurs.

Tonight the gowns will be donned by Paris mannequins who will wear them in the playlet M. Roger Boutet de Monvel, the author-artist, has written for Mme. Fernandez so she can get more money for the French war orphans.

This really is the official introduction to America of the new Paris styles endorsed and aided by the French artists. The show will be presented, matinee and evening, every day for the next week.

DANIELS PLANS SUBMARINE BASES

Will be One of Features of His New Defense Program—Need Places For Rest

WORK IS HARD ON THE CREWS

(By United Press.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Many submarine bases along the U. S. coasts will be one of the defense program features to be submitted by Navy Secretary Daniels to Congress. Daniels says the experimental base at New London has been proved a success.

"The strain of service on submarine crews is so great that it is necessary to provide a place where they may rest up after trips," said Mr. Daniels. "Quiet quarters should be provided where the men may recuperate while the vessels are resupplied and repaired."

The new submarine M-1, just launched is the first so-called U. S. fleet submarine. Her sister ship is the Schley. These vessels are expected to accompany the battle fleet on cruises of any length. The new naval program calls for fifteen of the M type vessels. It is proposed to build a large number of smaller, coast defense submarines. Several of these small subs, however, have recently run the 2,000 miles between San Francisco and Honolulu.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or Bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

What the State Owes. (Indiana Times.)

The state of Indiana owes to Purdue University and Indiana University about $484,000, and pays interest on this domestic debt. The Purdue debt cannot be cancelled without special legislation. The state, as is shown by official reports, has on hand in the state debt sinking fund money with which to pay the Vincennes university issue amounting to about $121,000. These bonds cannot now be paid unless the holders agree to accept settlement, but the money is a sacred fund to square them off, so they need not be counted as a state debt. It is not advisable to try to induce the voter to believe, however, that the state is out of debt while that $484,000 state school item still hangs above the treasury, draining interest payments with regularity and persistency.

GRAND JURY IS SET IN MOTION

In Instructions, Judge Sparks Tells
Jurors What is Expected of
Them

REFERS TO JOHNSON CASE

Suit Set For Today is Compromised
And Will be Dismissed—Erba
Price Discharged

The grand jury was sworn in and charged this morning by Judge Sparks, and immediately started work. In his statement to the grand work. In his statement to the grand instructions regarding the investigation of law breaking in this city and county and urged the grand jury to take up first any crime involving prisoners held in the county jail.

The court called attention to the case of Clayton Johnson, who is held in jail for the alleged misuse of guardianship funds. The court told the jury that Johnson's case should be investigated and that if he was guilty of using the funds of his two children, he was guilty of embezzlement.

Amos Glidden, drawn as one of the grand jurors, was excused by the court on account of illness and Joel G. Carson of this city was drawn to fill the vacancy. Judge Sparks appointed Owen Henley of Ripley township as foreman of the grand jury and James Cassidy was sworn in as grand jury bailiff.

The first session of the grand jury was a busy one. The corridor of the third floor was crowded all day with witnesses waiting to testify. A majority of the witnesses were women. It was reported that the grand jury was investigating an alleged "blind tiger" in the northwestern part of the city.

The case set for trial today was compromised and will be dismissed. As a result it was rather quiet in circuit court. The case which was set for trial was the suit of the Warner Instrument Company against Harvey A. Moore, on a guaranty. The case was sent to this county on a change of venue from Shelby county.

Notice of an appeal was filed in the damage suit of Marshall Green against the Big Four railway. The jury, when the case was tried, gave Green $550 damages. The appeal bond was fixed at $1,000 and ninety days given in which to file a bill of exceptions.

Thanksgiving day will be observed in the usual way here Thursday. There will be one city delivery of mail, but the rural carriers will make no delivery at all. The postoffice will close at ten o'clock Thursday morning, for the remainder of the day. A majority of the stores will be open in the morning, but will close at noon for the day. ## ADDITIONS TO THE CHURCH NUMBER 27

Since Meeting Began.

THE OTHER SERVICES CLOSE

Sunday was a day that will long be remembered in the annals of the Main Street Christian church. Three mammoth services were held and during the course of the day there were twenty-seven additions to the church. This makes a total of sixty-seven converts during the meeting, which has been in progress only two weeks.

The Rev. J. H. O. Smith preached three excellent churches Sunday, the one in the afternoon being for men only. Special musical numbers were provided by the Rev. H. H. Saunders, singing evangelist. Every available seat in the main auditorium and the Sunday school room was filled for last night's services. The revival will continue this week with preaching each night at seven-thirty o'clock.

Protracted meetings at the United Presbyterian and First Baptist churches drew to a close Sunday night. There were twenty additions to the Baptist church, where the revival has been in progress two weeks and three days.

CASSIUS SMITH TRIAL POSTPONED

Inability of Henry Spaan to Reach
Noblesville Causes Delay of
Two Days.

SPECIAL VENIRE DRAWN

The jury in the case against Cassius Smith, charged with the murder of his father-in-law will be empaneled Wednesday at Noblesville. Court will adjourn for Thanksgiving on Thursday and the introduction of evidence will begin on Friday.

The case was originally set for today, but Henry Spaan of Indianapolis, one of Smith's attorneys, could not be in Noblesville until Wednesday. He is engaged in a trial at Danville and the court there was delayed for a day or two on account of the death of Judge Hadley, thus making it necessary to start the Smith case a day or two later. A special venire of forty jurymen has been drawn.

The defendant is a son of the late Walter Smith of this county and was at one time employed on the I. & O. traction line. The alleged murder took place at the Smith home north of Indianapolis.

RESOLUTION TO DISBAND FAILS

Effort to Discontinue Rush County
Teachers Association at Session
Saturday is Wasted.

BACKED BY CITY TEACHERS

They Will Likely be Given Opportunity to Withdraw if They Care
to—No Ill Feeling.

As was predicted Saturday the attempt to disband the Rush County Teachers' Association failed. The resolution was introduced and failed for the lack of a majority. The resolution was favored by the teachers of the Rushville schools because it is pointed out, they have a large number of institutes to attend. As a result, it is likely that these teachers will be given the privilege of withdrawing from the county organization and some other arrangements will likely be made for these teachers, but the county institute will be held as usual.

No ill feeling developed over the introduction of the resolution. It was stated today that the resolution was introduced in an effort to get a line on the sentiment. The teachers outside of the city schools took the position that the institute should continue as it has been in existence twenty-one years and there was no occasion for disbanding. These teachers insisted that if the teachers of the city schools wanted out of the institute all they had to do was withdraw and that there was no occasion for such a radical move as disbanding the organization.

The discussion was entirely friendly, it was stated. The teachers in the city schools have been attending the county institute for years as a method of making up for the holiday which is given for the day after Thanksgiving. It is likely that the teachers here will attend some other meeting to make up for this day. It was also pointed out that as long as the county institute was held in Rushville a large number of the teachers here would attend, whether they were compelled to or not.

The institute Saturday was considered one of the best in several years. The three speakers were of high order, and the addresses proved most interesting. The resolutions as passed expressed appreciation on the part teacher to the speakers and included a memorial on the death of Miss Lena Brookbank, a teacher in the Moscow school.

KNIGHTSTOWN WOMAN KILLED

Mrs. George Watts Burned to Death
When Gasoline Explodes After
Her Auto Hits Car

ACCIDENT IN INDIANAPOLIS

Husband Makes Frantic Efforts to
Put Out Fire But Has to Stand
by And Watch Wife Die

Although he made frantic efforts to extinguish the fire, George Watts, manager of the Knightstown telephone company, well known here, had to stand by and watch his wife die early Saturday evening in Indianapolis when the gasoline tank of his automobile exploded and the machine caught fire after it had been struck by an Indianapolis street car. Mrs. Watts was pinned down by the machine and unable to move.

Margaret Watts, daughter of the dead woman, suffered bruises, but Mr. Watts, and Mrs. M. E. Reagan, her daughter Mary Reagan and Mrs. Susan Morris, all of Knightstown, escaped injury.

According to the story of those who witnessed the accident the automobile tried to avoid one street car and drove in front of another. For a moment, the accident did not seem to be of a serious nature, but an explosion of gasoline followed and fire enveloped the machine.

Watts made frantic attempts to save his wife and to extinguish the fire after her clothes were ablaze. He succeeded, but not until she had been injured so seriously she could not recover. Firemen were called from nearby engine house and finally extinguished the flames.

The body of the dead woman was removed to an undertaking establishment. Margaret Watts was taken to a friend in Indianapolis where she was treated.

The automobile party was returning to Knightstown after witnessing the Wabash-DePauw football game. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Watts a student at Wabash was in Indianapolis at the time.

Miss Susan Morris of Newcastle, who was in the Watts car but escaped unscathed, is a niece of Judge Douglas Morris of this city.

BOUGHT ROAD WITH THE CONSENT OF T. R.

Charles S. Mellen, Former New Haven
Head, Tells of Absorption
of Boston and Maine Line.

MILITARY VIEW WAS TAKEN

(By United Press.)
New York, Nov. 22.—Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven, testified today in the trial of the indicted directors that the purchase of the Boston & Maine by the New Haven railroad was made with the full consent of Col. Roosevelt, then president and Secretary of the Interior Lane, then an interstate commerce commissioner.

They agreed with him, Mellen said, that it was better from a military standpoint to have the Boston & Maine owned by an American co-operation than to have it fall into the hands of Canadian owners.

But the President declared, Mellen said, that if the New Haven officials violated the law, they did so at their own risk.

SAYS FAILURE IS DUE TO STUDENT

T. Z. Davis, Psychologist, Declares
Those That Succeed Owe it to
Their Education.

ADDRESSES THE HIGH SCHOOL

Every Boy and Girl Should Know
Where They Are Going—Indecision no Excuse, he Says.

T. Z. Davis, a psychologist of Farmer City, Ill., addressed the students of the high school this afternoon on the subject, "Why Student's Fail," showing that the fault is their own despite the fact that the teacher for the most part gets the blame. In a series of fairy stories the speaker brought the experience down to actual life and showed that the majority of men and women who succeed in the world owe their success to ability gained through education.

The speaker told of 10,000 men in Chicago advertising for jobs when one firm advertised for three men and out of this great number of men not one was qualified for the positions. "I say," said Mr. Davis, "that there are right now in this country 500,000 men out of work simply because they have not the ability to fill good positions."

He declared that some people gather diamonds and other sandstone all because they did not make a decision early in life as to what their future course would be. He related several incidents of real life in which the boy started in life without friends, money or influence and finally gained that which they started out to be. He referred to Abraham Lincoln as declaring when young, that he would be president of the United States and then setting about to accomplish his ambition.

"Every boy and girl in this school," said Mr. Davis, "should know where they are going. Indecision is no excuse. Know where you are going and then go. Lincoln knew where he was going and set his aspirations accordingly. He had his eye on the presidency and he knew that if he didn't get it someone else would. You have got to get away from the crowd if you win in any race."

He pointed out that people must be better fitted for life now than at one time and declared that work was the key to success. Better grades in the schools come as a result of work, he declared. "Books are not all of an education," said Mr. Davis. "Righteous principles with the ability to back it up is what makes men successful."

The students were warned not to steal their way through school, as they hurt themselves worse than any one else and the effects were bound to be felt in after life. The address of Mr. Davis was arranged hurriedly.

Amusements

The Gem offers a two reel comedy, "An All Around Mistake" for the first picture tonight. King Baggot and Arline Pretty are featured and it is said to be a fine picture. The other is a comedy entitled "Snatched From the Altar." Eddie Lyons is featured.

In "A Little Brother of the Rich," the Universal five-act photodrama which comes to the Gem theater on Wednesday, two youthful sweethearts are engaged to marry when circumstances of their own choosing part of them. The girl becomes a famous actress. The boy, hobnobbs with the idle rich. Later they meet but not to marry.

"A Little Brother of the Rich" was written by Joseph Medill Patterson, the Chicago millionaire, who knows the society and stage life which he depicts in his famous novel and which is faithfully transcribed in the photoplay version of the novel made by Otis Turner, producer of "Damon and Pythias" and "The Black Box" serial.

The Princess will show for tonight's program a big feature entitled "A Woman's Resurrection." Betty Nansen is featured. It is said to be a telling drama and the scenes are magnificent and varied to a degree seldom ever seen. In the ensembles one thousand people take part and over and above all shines the brilliant acting of Miss Nansen. Tomorrow night the four act drama "Ransom's Folly" will be shown. The picture is taken from the story of the same name by Richard Harding Davis.

Regarding the feature picture at the Princess Thursday night, the New York Sun says: "Picturizing" one of Cyrus Townsend Brady's novels, the Vitaphone Theatre presented "The Island of Regeneration," a story of two castaways on a South Pacific island. It is one of the Vitaphone's greatest achievements, for the highly colored tale is a series of beautiful pictures that move from Virginia in the seventies to the southern isle, and from social affairs in "Prisco" to a tableau of Edith Storey as a crouching nymph beside a pool.

Oh, yes, the nude in the motion picture art has arrived, for here this fine actress, in order to properly present the story, must needs join her sister player of another film in the unclothed tableau. There is nothing offensive in the picture. Miss Storey is shown bathing in a secluded pool on the lonesome islet, as she had few clothes she had to swim in nature's clothing. When she crouches hidden in a secret cave above water the posture is artistic with no touch of undue revelation. As she lithely swims about her poses are those of unconscious grace.

The story is of a society girl who goes a-cruising with a yachtman in defiance of conventions. When he eventually attempts to win her by force she jumps into a gasoline launch, in which she drifts to a lone island. On it lives a man who was cast away there as a boy. She would teach him English, but he learns—love. Three years after rescue comes, but because lying accusation destroys his faith in her she make him believe she has ended her life. He goes to America, but after more years returns to her. It is all pictured in entrancing fashion.

Indianapolis is to have a grand opera event that should prove notable in the city's musical history, and it is not far off. Announcement is made that negotiations have been completed between the Murat Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., and the San Carlo Grand Opera Company for the appearance at the Murat during the week of December 6th, of that celebrated organization of songbirds. The San Carlo Company, numbering upwards of six score members and including some twenty of the foremost opera stars of the present day, was recently selected to re-open the famous Boston Opera House, the Hub being without it's own opera organization again this season. The Boston critics and the seasoned opera enthusiasts of the "cultured" city received the San Carlo stars with exceptional enthusiasm, the engagement achieving such success that a return engagement of four weeks has been arranged at the great playhouse in the Spring.

Indianapolis has been without this form of entertainment for a long time except for a few unimportant traveling companies that have attempted to sing grand opera in English. The San Carlo performances will be in Italian and French, with a brilliant singing chorus, the nucleus of which was brought direct from the famous chorus schools of Italy, a complete grand opera orchestra and ballet feature. There will be a repertoire of eight different and distinct operas, these to be sung by three separate casts of principals. The operas will be staged upon the same metropolitan scale of excellence as at Boston, Washington, Montreal and other cities where the love of grand opera is of long standing, the scenic investiture and costuming of the San Carlo forces being entirely new, novel and traditional in character.

The grand opera week will be directly under the auspices of Murat Temple, and will unquestionably prove a gala event for music-lovers and students of the art. Aside from the noteworthy features already mentioned there are two more that will make the event one of rare attractiveness. These are the repertoire and the prices—both of which will be more or less of the popular character. It will be a financial treat as well as a musical one owing to the generously low prices announced, it being understood that no seat will cost more than $2, and from that figure it will range as low as 50c.

The repertoire follows: Monday, Dec. 6, "Aida"; Tuesday, "Lucia Di Lammermoor"; Wednesday, "Matinee," "Tales of Hoffman"; Eve, "IL Trovatore"

scene and incidental music: Eve, "Rigoletto"; Thursday, "Cavalleria Rusticana and Pagliacci"; Friday, "La Traviata (Camille)"; Saturday, Matinee, "Tales of Hoffman"; Eve, "IL Trovatore"

The regular public seat sale will open Thursday, Dec. 2 at 9. The mail order subscriptions will be received from this time forward, and carefully filled.

The grand opera event should prove particularly attractive to the artistic colony of this city owing to the large number of music students who seldom, if ever, are given opportunity to enjoy the masterworks of song as interpreted by great artists. The Murat Theater management wishes to convey to prospective patrons from this city the assurance that mail orders received from them will have the most careful attention. The grand opera is expected to constitute the supreme musical and society event of the amusement season in Indianapolis. It is probable that special train service will be arranged between this city and Indianapolis during the opera week.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Mart, local representative, Hargrove & Mullin, Druggists.

TO BUY IMPLEMENTS TO FARM IN EGYPT

Milroy Boy Will Purchase Machinery For American Farmer in Valley of the Nile.

INSPECTION AT EXPOSITION

Virgil Henry of Milroy left this morning for the exposition at San Francisco. The palace of machinery will prove the greatest attraction to Mr. Henry for he is making the trip in the interests of George Bey Wassa, who contemplates equipping his estates in Egypt with American tractor engines.

Dr. L. M. Henry, father of Virgil Henry, became acquainted with Bey Wassa while working in a hospital in Egypt. Bey Wassa is an American consular agent at Assiout, a holder of large land estates, and a man of much influence among the natives in the Nile valley around Assiout. Besides equipping his estates with crude oil engines and tractors, he desires to act as distributing agent for the American engines in his district. On account of the European struggle it was impossible for the agent to make the trip to America as planned so Virgil Henry will negotiate for him with the manufacturers at the exposition.

Most of the farming in Egypt is done with camels and oxen and the most primitive tools. What little farm machinery imported was of German make, but the English blockade has closed the ports of Germany, leaving the United States manufacturer without a competitor. Land worth as high as $300 an acre along the Nile will, if this deal goes through, receive the first touch of modern farm implements.

ACTION OF WOMEN'S BOARD EXPLAINED

Franchise League Issues Statement Today, Calling Mrs. S. C. Stimson "Unfaithful."

SUFFRAGE CAUSE IS HARMED

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—Mrs. S. C. Stimson of Terre Haute, the woman who conducted the work of the women's legislative council during the recent legislature, is described as "disloyal and unfaithful" to the cause of the Women's Franchise League of Indiana in a statement issued by the League today over the signature of Julia Henderson, its secretary.

In explaining the board's recent action in asking Mrs. Stimson's resignation, the statement says: "Mrs. Stimson's reprehensible methods her absolute disregard of all the principles and ideals for which the League members stand, her disloyalty to the board and the harm she has brought to the cause of suffrage in Indiana are the charges brought against her."

A copy of the statement was sent to every branch of the League in the state today.

What the State Owes.
(Indiana Times.)

The state of Indiana owes to Purdue University and Indiana University about $484,000, and pays interest on this domestic debt. The Purdue debt cannot be cancelled without special legislation. The state, as is shown by official reports, has on hand in the state debt sinking fund money with which to pay the Vincennes university issue amounting to about $121,000. These bonds cannot now be paid unless the holders agree to accept settlement but the money is a sacred fund to square them off, so they need not be counted as a state debt. It is not advisable to try to induce the voter to believe, however, that the state is out of debt while that $484,000 state school item still hangs above the treasury, draining interest payments with regularity and persistency.

Child Welfare Exhibits.

Child Welfare Exhibits is the title of a bulletin issued yesterday by the Children's Bureau of the Federal Department of Labor. This has been prepared in reply to the many inquiries received by the Bureau about exhibits, and single copies may be had for the asking. The bulletin will give those who expect to observe the nation-wide Baby Week next March, or those who are planning a baby show, a children's health conference, or any of children's exhibits the benefit of expert advice and practical experience in successful exhibit work.

The bulletin is full of suggestions for communities of all sizes. It describes effective small exhibits of one or another phase of child problems. It defines a "child welfare exhibit" in the title of which the name of the city or State appears as a "well-rounded presentation of the whole question of the welfare of the community's children," and sounds a warning against undertaking such a general exhibit without co-operation of all the social agencies of the community.

Courage Not Declining.

Has the alleviation of pain and more comfortable living of the present age made people soft, as so many assert?

Small pains are not borne as easily as formerly. A previous generation thought little of having teeth out without an anesthetic. The story is told of an old timer, who having a sore foot that bothered him, went out to the barn one day and chopped one toe off with a hatchet.

Nowadays most people take gas and ether to have teeth out, and dread the commonplace experience of having teeth pulled.

The superb courage shown in the European war suggests that when it comes to a pinch, human nature is much as it was in the heroic days of chivalry. The soldiers march on, line after line, to organized death. The bravery of American soldier boys under the murderous fire of snipers at Vera Cruz told the same story. There is to-day a growing sensitiveness to pain and alarm at danger. But also in a refined age there is a keener sense of shame and fear of ridicule. Perhaps life does not look good to the soldier, if he must gain it only by wearing the pale badge of cowardice.

The soundness of the protective tariff principle has been abundantly demonstrated by the effect of the European war, which has acted as a bar against importation of foreign goods and has compelled Americans to buy at home. In July, 1914, when the war began, American industry was going down the toboggan at a rate that would soon have brought it to the level of 1893-4. The revival in the last few months shows the advantage of shutting out foreign importations of goods in order to keep American mills running, American laborers employed and American money at home.

The Democratic administration may be sincere in its assertion that the army of unemployed is no larger than usual but it will at least be forced to admit that some hundreds have had their wages cut. If adoption of such policies be necessary in Government affairs as a result of business depression, the administration can scarcely be heard to deny that a similar course must be followed by private enterprise. The indisputable fact is that in practically all industry, wages have been cut or the number of employees reduced.

Democrats who agree with Barham that the American people like to be humbugged, will have a chance to revise their theories after the next election. The desire to be fooled is limited to entertainment and does not apply to business and government.

The Democratic National Convention pledged its Presidential candidate to the principle of one term. This is one pledge the Republicans will aid them in fulfilling.

LAW MAY NEVER BE UNRAVELED

One Correspondent Raises Number of Questions Concerning That New Primary Statute.

CONFLICTS GALORE FOUND

Pointed Out That There is no Provision Applying to Towns—Are They Exempted.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—Voters of Indiana, as the primary date approaches, are beginning to have some idea as to what kind of a primary law it is that the last Democratic legislature gave the state. It is full of conflicting provisions and the language is vague in the extreme. Not until one begins a study of the law does he realize just exactly what kind of legislation a Democratic legislature can produce when it does not discuss a single provision on the floor of either House as was the case with the present primary law.

A half dozen Philadelphia lawyers would have trouble in figuring out just exactly what it all means. Letters are pouring into state headquarters, praying for help in interpreting this law. The following from a letter received from a worried precinct committeeman is but a sample of those coming from every section of the state. This correspondent asks:

Section 4. Can a precinct committeeman be employed by the county board of election commission to assist them in the November election to canvass the vote?

Section 5. Does the first sentence mean what it says? Does it mean that each political party shall have an election board. It says the following officers "for each political party participating in such primary." Is the poll book holder an officer of the board and is he paid by the county and does the county have to furnish him his meals? In case there are only two parties in a county who would appoint the second judge? Who appoints the clerks of the board. Is each party to have a poll book holder? If so who appoints the poll book holder? If only one poll book holder for all parties who appoints him?

Section 7. There seems to be a conflict with Section 5 in the way the election board is appointed. Section 5 provides how the board is to be named and Section 7 says the chairman is to nominate.

The last clause of Section 7 provides for the pay of the board and officers shall be the same as is received by the same officers at the general election, which is $2.00 and $1.50 per day, while Section 20 provides that they shall be paid $3.00 per day. Which is law?

Section 8. This Section does not include towns, and no where in the act is town included. I think that the Act does not include the town and in town nominations the primary law does not apply.

Section 13. What part of this Section has the Court declared illegal?

Section 20. Conflicts with Section 7.

Section 36. Does it mean that the signer to the petition who is sworn to said petition as set out in Section 35, can substitute a name in case the one named withdraws. That is does it put in the hands of the one person the right to name another person for delegate in place of the one withdrawn?

Section 53. What does it mean in Sec. 53 line 32 where it speaks of the March and June primary.

THE "VIGILANCE COMMITTEE."

On the outbreak of the war, a "Vigilance Committee" was organized as a sort of a general committee on public safety. It paid considerable attention to the press and to the legislature. It made dire threats to the latter or to individual members, when it thought there was undue hesitancy in passing certain legislation providing for the organization of troops. When an attempt was made to investigate it, the majority of the legislature, in sympathy with the spirit, recommended that every member in danger turn himself into a vigilance committee and take care of himself.

WILEY TEAM WANTS TO BE CONSIDERED

Terre Haute High School Lays Claim to State Football Championship—Good Record

HAS WON EVERY GAME PLAYED

(By United Press.) Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 22.—To many there may be some doubt as to the Indiana state high school football champions, but to football fans of Terre Haute the Wiley high school team stands head and shoulders above any.

Any shadowed doubt that have remained in the minds of Wiley's supporters was erased when the Wiley eleven minus Billy Hoff, all state back, declared ineligible, defeated the Robinson (Ill.) team, Nov. 5, by a score of 14 to 13.

Wiley bases her claim to real class on this victory, and Robinson is the acknowledged rival of Hyde Park eleven of Chicago, for the state title of Illinois. Linton, the only claimant of the title, Wiley has met and beaten 28 to 3.

Backing her claim, Wiley is willing to meet Gary, Elkhart or any other high school of the state.

Wiley has played four games, and is yet to meet the Coalmont and Terre Haute Garfield high school elevens. Wiley has scored 207 points to its opponents' 19. Wiley's record:

Wiley 24	Linton 3
Wiley 124	Greencastle 0
Wiley 41	Brazil 3
Wiley 14	Robinson 13.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 22.—When arrested today charged with passing fraudulent checks and jumping a hotel bill, Sidney Lewis Adler, age 23, said he could live well on $50 a week, but that he needed an automobile—hence the trouble.

Adler gave his address as Bronx, New York, and said he was a graduate of Columbia University. He was working as a draftsman in an architect's office here. Recently he came here from Montreal, Canada.

"The war made money tight there," said Adler.

The police said Adler passed bad checks on several local auto salesmen and obtained possession of one automobile.

The man approached the station and smashed the glass in the front door. He was in the act of stepping into the building when Agent Rock arose from his bed and started after the would-be robber. The robber, seeing that the agent was aroused, ran for his wagon and beat a retreat to the north.

TURKEY DINNER WILL COST LESS

While The Birds Are a Little Higher This Year The Entire Dinner Should Not Be

$4 FOR FAMILY OF FIVE PEOPLE

Crop in Southern Indiana Said to be Good—Two to Three Cents a Pound Over Last Year

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Nov. 22.—Bring on your Thanksgiving day. The Hoosiers are ready! Poultry dealers and grocers here today said that although turkeys are a little higher, some other things are lower, and anyway business conditions, they said, are much better in Indiana than they were a year ago. All told, your dinner will cost about $4 for five people.

President Wyckoff of the Indianapolis Poultry Co. said that prices of turkey today (22 cents alive, 25 New York and 28 full dressed) would hold about the same until Thanksgiving day. Dressed turkeys are from 2 to 3 cents higher a pound than last year.

"But with the steel mills, the coke ovens and the coal mines working full blast, we find that more turkeys are being bought than last year. This in past, will account for the scarcity," said Wyckoff.

Wyckoff then explained that the wet summer had hit the turkey industry hard. The turkeys that didn't drown were stunted trying to get away from the water, he said.

Grocers and poultry dealers estimated for the United Press what the average Thanksgiving dinner for five persons would cost this year. The following table was prepared:

Turkey (8 pounds)	28 cents	$2.24
Sweet potatoes (3 pounds)	33 cents	.10
Oysters (one quart)	.40
Cranberries (one pound)	.13
Celery (five cents) three bunches	.15
Peas (1 can)	.13
Nuts (one pound assorted)	.19
Mince pie	.20
Fruit cake	.40
Total		$3.94

All the prices are about the same as last year with the exception of turkey, the cranberries and sweet potatoes. These are cheaper.

If the head of the family likes duck better he can get it at 15 cents a pound alive, or 22 cents dressed. But dealers say ducks aren't as good now as they will be later on. Chickens are 16 cents per pound alive and 20 cents dressed.

Dealers said that for the most part their turkeys came from Southern Indiana.

NO SHORTAGE IN SOUTHERN PART

Turkeys Are Coming Into Bedford by The Wagon Loads—Price There is Reasonable

BUSINESS IS PROFITABLE

(By United Press.) Bedford, Ind., Nov. 22.—This city, in the heart of the "turkey belt" is carpeted with feathers this week, for it is doing its part to provide a suitable "turkey Thanksgiving" for the cities of Northern Indiana.

Turkeys are coming in by the wagon load and have been for a week past. The crop is reported good, the fowls being fine fat and of good weight. Despite reports from other places, Lawrence county fowls are prime. Farmers are receiving 17 cents a pound.

Rough country through this section makes turkey raising profitable. Very few turkeys, comparatively, are raised north of a line through Martinsville and Greensburg. Indianapolis dealers get about 70 percent of their fowls from southern Indiana and 25 percent from Illinois and Kentucky.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind, I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."

PROFIT DEPENDS ON SIZE OF FARM

Department of Agriculture Makes Survey to Emphasize What is Termed Small Farm Fallacy.

EQUIPMENT MORE EXPENSIVE

Also Farmer Can Realize From His Own Labor on Large Farm Than on a Small Tract.

Under conditions which prevail on the average American farm, the opportunity for making a satisfactory profit varies directly with the number of acres farmed, according to farm management specialists in the United States' department of agriculture. This statement is substantiated by figures gathered in the course of a survey which has recently been made by the department of a portion of Chester County, Pa. This survey, in the opinion of the specialists, emphasizes what has been called "the small-farm fallacy" which is discussed at some length in a bulletin soon to be issued, Farm Management Practice of Chester County, Pa.

In the territory surveyed, farms of from 30 to 40 acres required for each crop acre $15 worth of machinery on an average, as compared with less than $9 worth on farms of 160 acres and over. The small-sized needed one horse for every 9 acres as compared with one horse for more than 17 acres on the larger holdings. In spite of the increased investment per acre, the small farms were not so well equipped with labor-saving machinery.

On the farms of from 13 to 40 acres the average labor income—that is to say, the money which the farmer receives for his year's work after the interest on his investment has been deducted—was only $240 while on farms of over 160 acres the average was $1,575. From these and other figures which convey the same lesson, the investigators concluded that the small farm, carrying on a general farming business labors under a fixed handicap that is inherent in its size.

This relation of the size of the farm to the opportunity for profit is declared in the bulletin already mentioned to be of vital interest because of the notion which so widely prevails that the ideal of American agriculture is the small farm. Numerous real-estate promotion schemes are based on this idea. It is a distinct fallacy. Very small farms are difficult to make successful anywhere, and it is only the exceptional man who is equal to the task. They must always be devoted to the most intensive types of farming, and the products of most kinds of intensive farming fluctuate greatly in volume and price, so that the business is very insecure. The danger is greatly magnified if the small farm is situated a long distance from market, for prices for their products do not have to fall very far until the transportation charges wipe out all profits. Even in the vicinity of the better markets these small farms succeed only in localities where they have distinct advantages for the particular type of farming which they follow.

BRITISH LABOR WILL BE LOYAL

Intends to Vindicate Itself And Show
That The Workingmen Are as Patriotic as France

TWO BIG STRIKES LAST YEAR

Truce Was Declared When Hostilities Started—Capital Making Big Profits

BY ED L. KEEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Oct. 9 (By Mail)—British labor is determined to vindicate itself. The great recruiting campaign recently inaugurated by the labor leaders was not merely to stave off threatened conscription but to demonstrate that English workingmen are as loyal and patriotic as those of France—and Germany.

The two big strikes of the last year—those of the Clyde shipbuilders and the South Wales miners—and various small local disputes seem justification for the opinion that the average British workman is indifferent, possibly traitorous to his country.

He insists that he is neither. In representing the war-labor situation from his standpoint, care has been taken to verify the labor statements. The first of September, 1914, English organized labor had declared itself wholeheartedly for the war. Of two great labor organizations: the Trade Union Congress and the General Federation of Trade Unions, the former has three million workers and the latter about a million. Most unions affiliated with the Federation are also members of the Congress and vice-versa.

The Congress has to do mainly with movements and pro-labor legislation; the Federation with maintenance of individual rights.

The governing bodies; the Parliamentary Committee of the Congress and the Management Committee of the Federation, elected yearly—had promised to help the government to win the war. Joint recruiting campaigns were begun. Trade journals urged workingmen to enlist. Insistence was laid upon patriotism.

Upon the outbreak of hostilities an industrial truce was declared. All strikes proceeding were stopped; impending movements were cancelled; closer unity efforts in the general 28 weeks old building trades dispute in London suddenly terminated. The labor movement was abandoned. The 1 days a week Scottish coal dispute was postponed. The railwaymen's increased wages, 8-hour day and conciliation scheme program, was pigeon-holed. The plan to amalgamate into one great triple alliance the three powerful unions—miners, railwaymen, and the transport workers—was dropped.

Organized labor did this without any guarantee, from the government or the employers that wages and conditions would not thereby be worsened. Labor trusted to the patriotism of capital.

The leaders did not completely control the situation, but until the truce was broken—for reasons given later—it was pretty faithfully observed. In the first 7 months of 1914 there were 836 industrial disputes, involving 423,000 workers; in the last 5 months there were only 137, involving 23,000. In July, 1914, 99 new disputes were started, in August, 1915, there were only 15.

By February, 1915 more than 350,000 of the better-paid, organized workers had enlisted. More than 10 per cent of trade unionism had demonstrated its patriotism. Since, the number has increased to 1,250,000, including 260,000 miners. Various causes led to the breaking of the truce. The war produced a temporary dislocation of trade and consequent unemployment. In September, 1914, out of 9,250,000 workers, organized and unorganized, 98,000 men and 189,000 women were out of work despite heavy recruitment from labor ranks generally, estimated at 616,000. The cotton trade was hard hit; also the woolen industry—for the government had not realized how much thread would be needed. This was a phase, but with it grew dissatisfaction with the government handling of the tremendous war work.

Local funds contributed by the British public. Local committees refused money to war victims, supplying them tickets for itemized groceries—omitting milk. Inquisitorial committee men, labor says, often put applicants in the position of being suspected imposters.

From August, 1914, the cost of living had steadily risen. By the first of 1915 a dollar had become worth to the workingman only 75 cents. (Since then its value has fallen to 65 cents). There were practically no increases in wages. Labor got poorer and poorer. Capital was piling up huge war profits.

OPTION ELECTION HELD AT BEDFORD

With Dry Majority Two Years Ago
The Wets Are Said to Face
Big Odds Today

CAMPAIGN WAS VERY BITTER

By United Press.)
Bedford, Ind., Nov. 22.—Bedford went to the polls today to give its verdict for or against a dry town. Two years ago the verdict favored the dries by 192. This year, however, after a spirited fight, the wets were claiming they had overcome that majority. The dries today declared the outlook was favorable to them.

Newspaper publicity has been used effectively by the wets. In one full page ad, it was set out that in the six years Bedford has been dry, crime has increased 117 percent in the city and county. The reason given was that blind piggers supplied liquor in violation of the law. The argument was made that vote against prohibition was a vote against the blind pigger.

Statisticians on the wet side compared Bedford, dry, with several wet cities of about Bedford's size as to the number of arrests made and the number made for intoxication. These figures, said by the wets to be authentic, showed Bedford with 279 arrests; Columbus, 300; Washington 221; Jeffersonville, 137; LaPorte, 154; Shelbyville, 33. Fifty-nine percent of Bedford's arrests were for intoxication, whereas Columbus and Washington, with 41 percent, had the highest intoxication record among wet cities.

No matter how sound your teeth may seem to be, no matter how you may scoff at the idea of your having this disease, it is a positive fact that the germ which causes it is working now in your teeth.

The appalling discovery of this fact—that the germ which causes pyorrhea is one which inhabits every human mouth—was made over a year ago. Since then dentists have been urging everyone to take special precautions in their daily toilet to prevent this disease from developing in its acute form of bleeding gums, tenderness in chewing and loose teeth.

To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

HYPHEN BEING REMOVED FAST

Public Schools Enlist in Campaign to Americanize Candidates For Citizenship

400 CITIES AND TOWNS JOIN

Magnitude of Work And Development Shown by Immense Amount of Territory Covered

Washington, Nov. 20.—Throughout the country the plan of the Bureau of Naturalization of the U. S. Department of Labor to enlist the co-operation of public schools in the education and Americanization of candidates for citizenship is receiving the most gratifying support. Approximately 400 cities and towns have already joined in the nationwide educational movement, for the elimination of the hyphen and this number is increasing daily.

The magnitude of this work and its development since its inception are shown, in part, by the territory covered, the number of candidates for citizenship reached, and the night and day schools which have been established for their instruction. It is the intention of the Bureau of Naturalization to communicate with all applicants for citizenship in the United States, wherever they are to be found, and to secure the opening classes for them. During the current scholastic year all superintendents of schools where classes may be formed will receive monthly from the Bureau the name, address, age, nationality, and other necessary information concerning each alien, residing within their jurisdiction who files a declaration of intention for naturalization. In this manner school authorities are enabled to get in touch with such applicants and afford them valuable assistance in preparing for citizenship. In addition to this the Bureau informs each applicant for citizenship that his name has been forwarded to the educational authorities, advises him to go to school, and points out the benefits to be derived from such attendance. The Bureau is also working in close co-operation with various patriotic and civic bodies of the country to secure the opening of public night schools where there are none.

The wives of all petitioners for naturalization are also advised to attend school, for the reason that they derive citizenship when their husbands obtain their final papers, and because, too, such instruction will materially aid the family to live as Americans live. It has been found that approximately two out of every three petitioners for naturalization are married, and it is toward the improvement of the home life and conditions that this phase of the movement is especially directed.

The records of the Bureau of Naturalization show that since the commencement of the school year on October 1 notifications have been sent to approximately 40,000 declarants, 20,000 petitioners, and 15,000 wives of petitioners, and each day hundreds are added to the list.

The present volume of naturalization shows that over half a million foreign-born residents annually bring themselves within the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Naturalization, and it is the plan of the Bureau, through the co-operation of the public schools with its educational movement, to change that portion of the alien body now in a condition of helpless dependence which is the birthright of all American citizens regardless of their origin of birth.

PLANT EXPERTS ISSUE ADVICE

Tell Housewives How to Bathe, Feed And Care For Potted Flowers at All Times

RUBBER PLANTS NEED FOOD

Diluted Ammonia is Helpful—Should be Re-Potted When the Roots Get Too Thick

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Advice to housewives on the bathing, feeding and care of potted plants has just been issued by Uncle Sam and his plant industry experts.

Rubber plants need a sun bath every day. Their feet should be kept damp, but not wet. The leaves should be washed twice a week in good soapsuds and rinsed in clear water. When the pot gets too full of roots, re-pot the plant. Every rubber plant should have a prepared food square meal twice a month. Give it a dose of diluted ammonia occasionally, too.

With regard to the housewife's potted plants generally, Uncle Sam says she should chase the woolly white mealy bugs and the little red ants away from them with a toothpick. She may drown the red spider with a squirt gun. If the bugs and spiders shatter your preparedness program, you are advised to cut the plants off within an inch of their lives and throw them away. They'll grow again.

The green fly, which is not so green as it looks, won't bother your plants if you keep them well bathed and fed.

DANIELS PLANS SUBMARINE BASES

Will be One of Features of His New Defense Program—Need Places For Rest

WORK IS HARD ON THE CREWS

(By United Press.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Many submarine bases along the U. S. coasts will be one of the defense program features to be submitted by Navy Secretary Daniels to Congress. Daniels says the experimental base at New London has been proved a success.

"The strain of service on submarine crews is so great that it is necessary to provide a place where they may rest up after trips," said Mr. Daniels. "Quiet quarters should be provided where the men may recuperate while the vessels are resupplied and repaired."

The new submarine M-1, just launched is the first so-called U. S. fleet submarine. Her sister ship is the Schley. These vessels are expected to accompany the battle fleet on cruises of any length. The new naval program calls for fifteen of the M type vessels. It is proposed to build a large number of smaller, coast defense submarines. Several of these small subs, however, have recently run the 2,000 miles between San Francisco and Honolulu.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or Bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; remove all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or a sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush of the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a table spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, I, Frank J. Cheney, make oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

The court room was filled with Austro-German sympathizers. Each side quizzed spokesmen about their war sympathies.

Attorneys for the defense said they would admit many of the acts complained of by the governments, but would contend they were not in violation of the neutrality laws.
